Location: Reva,VA & Richmond,VA

Attacker(s): Ricky Jovan Gray 28,Ray Joseph Dandridge 28

Description: Sheryl answered the door when she was on the phone with her father. The man at the door, who was not alone, said he was having car trouble. She was not seen alive again. Instead, she was found shot & hanging from an electrical cord in her burning basement.

Bryan,Kathryn,Stella,and Ruby Harvey,a family of four,were found beaten,slashed,and bound with electrical cord and tape in the basement of their burning house.

Investigators from the Culpeper County Sheriff's Office interviewed inmate Timothy Thomas at the Northern Neck Regional Jail in Warsaw on two occasions. Thomas, in jail on unrelated charges, told them that Baskerville said she was with Gray in Culpeper when "he forced his way into a house and killed a lady and that she saw the body hanged in the basement with an electrical cord." Gray killed Warner with a gunshot to the head, then left her body hanging in her basement by an electrical cord, before setting the house on fire.

Kathryn Harvey, 39, was the co-owner of a popular local toy shop called "World of Mirth" in the Carytown district of Richmond, and the half-sister of actor Steven Culp. Bryan Harvey, 49, was an indie musician of note, a former member of House of Freaks, a two-man college rock band in Richmond. Their daughters Stella and Ruby were 9 and 4, respectively. Bryan and Kathryn died of blunt-force trauma to the head, Stella of smoke inhalation and blunt-force trauma to the head, and Ruby of stab wounds to her back, one of which punctured her lung.
